This agreement specifically covers the provision of the following services:

I agree to contribute to the event as agreed and – if applicable – to create and submit the agreed presentation documents in a timely manner.

If I am prevented from attending on the day of the event (e.g. due to sickness), I will inform my contact of this immediately. I will also endeavour to find a substitute speaker.

Data Protection

X I agree that the photo and professional experience that I provided may be published on the websites and digital channels and in the print media to announce and promote the event by the Global Solar Council.

X I agree that my contact details (email address, telephone number if applicable) as well as my respective presentation and presentation documents may be forwarded by the Global Solar Council to the forum chairs / session chairs / moderators and the respective technical service providers for internal communications and to improve quality.

Publicity Rights

X I consent to the publication of my professional experience and photo as well as my presentation and any existing presentation documents on the websites and digital channels and in the print media by the Global Solar Council.

X I consent to the publication of picture, audio and video recordings made by me at the event of the Global Solar Council and of the event recordings on the websites and digital channels and in the print media by the Global Solar Council and that they may be forwarded to and published by marketing partners, press, speakers and moderators.

I may withdraw the consent granted in any of the individual points listed under “Data Protection” and “Publicity Rights” – also towards the Global Solar Council – at any time with future effect by sending an email to secretariat@globalsolarcouncil.org.
